

BMW Club Queensland

Code of Conduct

This Code is to provide a framework within which Members of the Club (and their guests) are responsible for observing its embedded principles when participating in events under the Club's banner.

Under this Code, Members and their Guests will:

1. Extend to any person with whom they have contact the socially accepted Australian code of etiquette and conduct.
2. Represent the Club with a favourable reflection at all times, and consider all actions to ensure no detriment to the Club or its reputation.
3. Respect the rights, dignity, and worth of every person with whom they have contact regardless of age, gender, ethnic origin, or ability and refrain from any discriminatory practices based on age, gender, religion, ethnic origin, or ability.
4. Accept responsibility for their actions, and display high standards in language, conduct, punctuality, and presentation.
5. Operate within the Rules and spirit of the Club, abide by the Rules of the Club, and respect the individuals administering the Rules.
6. Refrain from any form of verbal, physical, or emotional abuse toward other Members or any other person with whom they have contact.
7. Not undertake any activity in the name of the Club without consideration and approval of the Club Committee.
8. Maintain a balanced viewpoint on all situations, and ensure adherence to all legal, road, and social rules.
9. Be a positive role model for other Members and any other person with whom they have contact.

Any breach of this Code could result in a review of the individual's Membership, the withdrawal of which could result after consultation with and consensus by the Club Committee in accordance with the Club's Rules.
